Lifestyles Design Awarded NARI Meritorious Award for Universal Design

Perkiomenville, PA, February 1, 2010 --- The National Association of the Remodeling Industry (NARI) awarded Lifestyles Design, in Perkiomenville, PA, with a Meritorious Award for Universal Design during its annual awards competition. The award was given for design of the master bathroom of a recently retired couple. To accommodate the wife's progressive multiple sclerosis, Nunan made the bathroom wheelchair accessible by enlarging it. She also created a no-step shower, installed slip resistant floors, decorative grab bars, and made the space more beautiful and comfortable.

Independent Living Consultant, Patricia Nunan, CKBR, CKD, CAPS, owner of Lifestyles Design, specializes in helping people with disabilities and the elderly to remain in their homes as long as they choose. She assists people with making choices and guiding the process of selecting and modifying their home to meet their needs. Patricia has worked as a remodeling and home renovation consultant for 16 years and she started her company, Lifestyles Design, in 2001. She is an award-winning designer who also consults for the state of Pennsylvania. She is considered an expert in her field, and has acted as a speaker for the World Congress on Disabilities.

An impartial panel of judges who are experts within the industry and associated fields, selected winners based on each entrant's "before and after" photography and project description. Judging was based on problem solving, functionality, aesthetics, craftsmanship, innovation, degree of difficulty and entry presentation.
